Watch Catholic Social Teachings and their universality come alive on screen at the first Cana Film Festival!

Cana proudly presents its inaugural Cana Film Festival (CFF) at Catholic Centre for both adults and children. This film festival focuses on the universality of the Catholic Social Teachings. Documentaries, shorts and feature films of diverse origins will bring to life the ten principles of the Catholic Social Teachings and illustrate their significance outside the Catholic Faith. Film selection is closely guided by the principles of Human Dignity, Association, Subsidiarity, Participation, Common Good, Universal Destination of Goods, Solidarity, Dignity of Work, Dignity of Creation and Promotion of Peace. Through different stories told on screen, the festival captures the essence of Church's social mission and the importance of its members living out our faith in daily life. ∞

Experience film as a dynamic force for social good.

Film makers throughout the world have harnessed the power of film as a medium of communication and for motivating social good. At the Cana Film Festival, participating films evoke our shared humanity with their empowering and socially enriching messages. For first timers, CFF provides an inspiring introduction to this fast-growing genre and its abundant global talent.

Interactive programme to engage both adults and children.

During this weekend event, there will be 4 screenings per day, with 2 screenings running at the same time. The overall programme will include a Kids Showcase (8 – 14 years old), a Singapore Showcase, and an International Showcase. The CFF will open and close each day with panel discussions to help foster a clearer understanding of the Catholic Social Teachings, and include Q&A sessions about the films after each screening. We have an exciting line up of guests including a film director, film producer, as well as Fr Paul Staes, Fr Richards Ambrose, Sr Wendy Ooi and Fr Johnson Fernandez who is also the Spiritual Director for Cana and our Film Festival. ∞
